Alana Dunn – Making Student Learning Visible to Students.

Alana works in the 6/7 class at Riverton Primary School. She makes student learning visible to her students and empowers them to take ownership of their learning. Alana supports her students to use evidence, including from previous learning experiences in defining their learning goals.

Her work with students on learning intention and success criteria is outstanding, and this has been recognised by her peers when she led a recent staff meeting learning session.

Kerry Read – Junior Primary Expert Teacher.

Kerry knows each individual student as a learner. She systematically gathers learning outcome data and uses this to inform her programming. She has a deep understanding of what each student needs to ensure their learning progresses.

Kerry has taken a lead role in the development of the early year's whole site agreements on reading. Her suggestions are always well thought out, based on research and her own quality pedagogic practices.

Deanne Bowden – Quality Relationships with Students.

Deanne teaches Spanish in the high school. She knows her students well.

Deanne spends time talking with her students both in and out of classes getting to know their interests. She is a trusted person students can talk with.

Recently Deanne has taken part in peer observations with the Spanish teacher at the primary school. Both teachers have observed in each other's classrooms looking for what makes their practice effective.
